BACKGROUND

The appellant is one of a group of persons appearing before the courts in relation to allegations of theft of substantial sums of money from the government of Malawi. She has since been committed to the High Court of Malawi Lilongwe Registry for trial on charges of Theft contrary to section 278 of the Penal Code and Money Laundering contrary to section 35(1) (c) of the Money Laundering [Proceeds of Serious Crime and Terrorist Financing] Act. On November 20, 2013 she with others appeared before the High Court Lilongwe Registry seeking an order that she be released on bail. The ruling in respect of such application was delivered on December 3, 2013. For purposes of clarity we feel obliged to reproduce verbatim the order of the High Court in respect of such application.

‘For purposes of allowing investigations to be included | allow that the applicants continue to be in custody for the next 21 days. At the expiry for which the applicants may be released on bail with conditions as follows:

a. Applicants make full disclosure of all their assets real and personal whose record shall be verified by the prosecution and the assets shall be forfeited on abscondment of bail;

b. Applicants produce two sureties each surety to be bonded on k2.5 million cash;

c. Each applicant shall make a surety bond of K50 million not cash;

d. Each applicant shall surrender travel documents to the Officer in Charge responsible for prosecutions;

e. Each applicant shall report to the Officer in Charge responsible for prosecution at the Police Headquarters every Tuesdays of the week before 5.00pm;

f. None of the applicants shall in any way tamper with the evidence.

Examination of sureties shall be done by the Registrar'.[sic]

The appellant was not most pleased with the above order. She appealed to this court. The appeal was heard on December 17, 2013. We gave the order referred to hereinabove on the same date.
